

Two Track Titles to Riordan

54

Bob Harrington captured three events and established three meet records in leading Riordan to an overwhelming victory in the Catholic Athletic League track meet at Kezar Stadium yesterday.

The San Franciscan zipped over the 120 yard high hurdles in :15.4 and broadjumped 21 feet $\frac{3}{4}$ inches in the afternoon finals for records. After breaking the 180 yard low hurdle mark of :20.7 by a tenth of a second in the preliminaries, Harrington got off to a bad finals start, but won in :21.2.

Riordan won eleven of the thirteen events to pile up 157 points. St. Elizabeth's of Oakland, which took the other two first places, had 54. St. Joseph's (Alameda) scored 10; Marin Catholic (San Rafael) 9, and St. Mary's (Berkeley), 7.

Tom McNamara captured the 100 and 220 for St. Elizabeth's. He broke the furlong mark of :23.6 by four tenths of a second.

Riordan Favored In Catholic Loop Track Meet Today

Riordan is favored to defend its Catholic Athletic League track and field championship successfully today when the loop holds its annual meet today at Kezar.

Going for Coach Ed Fennelly are hurdler Bob Harrington (:15.1 and :20.3), discus thrower Gus Falgoust (138) and 440 men Mike Farrell (:52.8) and Chuck Murillo (:52.3). Harrington also is favored in the broad jump, where he has done 20-11 this season.

For the first time, winners will qualify for the North Coast Section's divisional meet, gateway to the State meet.

Finals begin at 1:30 p. m., though there will be varsity qualifying and Class B finals in the morning. Beginning at 10.
