Five teams dash for SCVAL title

By MIKE CLARK
Courier Sports Writer

THIS YEAR'S SCVAL track and field championship meet promises to be the most exciting clash of local powers yet as over five squads have a shot at the team title this Saturday night on Cupertino's oval.

Field events are scheduled to start at 6 p.m. while the first running event will take place at 7 p.m.

If the coaches' statements on a predicted team winner are any indication of what the competition will be like, the meet should prove to be fascinating.

"I THINK THIS IS the most balanced league meet we've had in a long time," noted Cupertino mentor Norm Eliason. "There is so much strength spread around that it has got to be a great meet."

"It looks right now like Los Altos has the inside path with Buchser and ourselves right behind, but Homestead, Lynbrook and Awalt are all potentially large point winners."

Meet director Ron Ross of Monta Vista seems to feel that no team has a superior shot at the team crown. "You'll have to flip a coin between Los Altos, Cupertino, Homestead, Lynbrook and TJSJ in deciding the championship.

"I IMAGINE IT WILL take only around 70 team points to win this year, whereas the average winner in the past has accumulated over 80 points," he said.

Ross hopes to add a little glamor to the meet this year by placing special emphasis on varsity competition. "We are going to try to spotlight all varsity events and hopefully introduce each competitor.

"We moved the discus ring to the infield, since the discus throwing event is highlighted by two nationally rated athletes in Allen of Lynbrook and Pushkin of Los Altos. It ought to be one of the best meets around."

THE JUMPING EVENTS in the finals should give spectators something special to watch. Cupertino dominates this area with Mark Thorp and Kevin McCarthy both long jumping over 23-feet and triple jumping over the 48-foot mark.

High jumpers Robert Lema, Mark Inasley and Jim Roberts have all cleared 6-6, and all stand an excellent chance to break the league standard of 6-6 set by Max Lowe of Awalt in 1964.

In the sprints, Thorp, Steve Marcki of Buchser and Steve Bumbaca of Monta Vista could all go under 10-flat in the century, although Bumbaca suffered a hamstring injury in the trials and may not compete.

JOHN SIIRILA OF BUCHSER and Ed Villareal Mountain View are the favorites in the 220 as each clocked a sub 22-second furlong.

Villareal and Siirila are also tops in the middle distance with each man claiming a 49.0 quarter. Dave Nolte of Cupertino, Rod Kelly of Lynbrook and Bernie Mahon of Monta Vista are outstanding competitors in the 880.

The distance events should be dominated by Jeff Norton of Los Altos, who has a 9:11 two mile to his credit and is capable of a sub 4:20 mile, although Craig Kennedy of Lynbrook could provide an upset.

IN THE WEIGHT EVENTS, Ron Allen and Jay Push are tops in the discus. Brad Davis of Monta Vista, Kim Gowen of Fremont, Rich Rossi of Los Altos and Allen are contenders in the shot put with heaves of over 54 feet.

The hurdle races should prove to be the most exciting of the evening as Carlos Rodrigues of Homestead, Napier of Lynbrook, Mark Mildbrandt of Cupertino and F

SCVAL relay events may provide exciting finish

Roberts of Awalt are all under 20-flat in the 180 lows and under 15-flat in the highs.

Pole vaulter Larry Hintz of Buchser, at 15-6, is over a foot and a half ahead of his nearest opponent in the skyscraper event, and could easily erase the league record of 14-5 1/2 by Russ Royal of Fremont in 1969.

The relay events should also provide excitement as Los Altos, Buchser, Lynbrook, and Awalt are closely knit in 440 relay and Buchser, Lynbrook, Fremont and Cupertino are all under 3:30 in the mile relay.
