

Schubert is tops in state

Stanford-bound athlete best runner in two events

Cory Schubert is establishing herself as the best female distance runner in Bay Area high school track history.

At the Fresno Bee Games Fri-

Prep track

day, the Del Mar High School senior won the 3,200-meter race with a time of 10:14.1, which converts to 10:17.7 for two miles. No other competitor was even within sight of her at the finish line, and this was easily the best mark in the state this year.

Schubert, who has signed a national letter of intent to attend Stanford University in the fall, also leads the state in the mile at 4:50.5.
